

COMPETENT AUTHORITY

Patrons with a Print Disability Eligibility Form

Eligibility Criteria

A print disability prevents or inhibits a person from reading conventional print. You are eligible to access materials restricted to the print disabled (talking books on CD and downloadable talking books) and SILS restricted material (described videos) through the public library if you have a print disability due to blindness, visual disability, physical disability and/or a learning/reading disability in accordance with the definition provided for “perceptual disability” in the Canadian Copyright Act.

Canadian Copyright Act definition

Under the provisions of the Canadian Copyright Act, “perceptual disability” means an impairment that prevents or inhibits a person from reading or hearing a literary, musical, dramatic or artistic work in its original format and includes a disability resulting from:

- a. Severe or total impairment of sight or hearing or the inability to focus or move one’s eyes
- b. The inability to hold or manipulate a book
- c. An impairment relating to comprehension
